By Nina Hatchitt Duffield

iUniverse, United States, 2005. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life on the farm in Minnesota was not easy during the early 1900s. All family members had to work long hours as a team to maintain an adequate supply of food, clothing, and shelter . the basic necessities of human existence. A trip to the annual County Fair was a treat beyond the comprehension of today s leisure-burdened Americans. Why, then, would a talented and attractive young woman named Nina Hatchitt leave a successful career in the heady cultural environment of Washington D.C. to marry a Minnesota farmer? Nina s decision was driven by love of a particular man and by love of family in the broadest and purest sense. Her choice was between the probability of new sensations of pleasure and more money to spend on things, and the promise of life-long heart happiness. She made her decision at a time when her already successful career was about to soar to higher levels. But by becoming a farmer s wife, she simply added a second career to an already impressive resume. Somehow she managed to continue writing...
