Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This memoir is about the life and making of prospective doctors at a medical college in a small town in India. The protagonist is a headstrong girl who initially had no inclination for the medical profession. Nonetheless keeping up with the norms of the educated middle class Indian family, she reluctantly clears the entrance exam and gets admission into a college not exactly a top-notch one. Right from her first step into her campus, what she encounters is a complete antithesis of the perceived image of the medical profession! She refuses to bow down to the deep rooted caste system and to accept the second class citizenship enforced upon the female medicos. As much as she finds herself swimming against the tide, her campus mates too find her high-handedness a bit problematic to accept. While the love hate relationship continues, she learns some valuable lessons...
