Gregory Delivered at the Jubilee Meeting at Kalamazoo, Tuesday Evening, September 20th, 1864 1. I have elsewhere affirmed the opinion that there are three parties on earth, who have natural rights and interests in the education of the young. 1st, The parent is by virtue of his parenthood the natural guardian and the divinely appointed guide and teacher of his children. All the ties of interest and affection should bind him to the work of their education. His is a great natural right, but not an exclusive or unlimited one; for his is not the only, nor the largest, interest involved. 2d, The child or youth has an interest in his own education, and a right to secure it as far as he is able, - a right sacred as his right to life and its enjoyments; an interest broad as his capabilities and destinies. All the possibilities of his being, as well as all the needs and duties of his life,...
