Review Of The Sixth Period--Testimony Of Heathen Writers--General Review--Conclusion. Review Of Sixth Period.--1. The termination of the sixth period, which closes the century, finds the four gospels and the Acts of the Apostles coming into general circulation, with most of the other New Testament writings. The condition of the church in reference to the New Testament books at the time, is well summed up by Rev. Dr. Davidson, in the closing paragraphs of his two volumes of Introduction to the New Testament: The following propositions, says he, are deducible from an impartial survey of the history of the first two centuries: The propositions condensed are as follows: 1. Before A. D. 170, no book of the New Testament was termed scripture. 2. No certain trace of the existence of the fourth gospel till after Justin Martyr. [This proposition might with equal...
