Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report of the Librarian of Congress and Report of the Superintendent of the Library Building and Grounds: For the Fiscal Year Ending June 30, 1911 The service has shown the usual number of changes in subordinate positions and two of moment. On January 1, 1911, Mr. Middleton G. Beaman resigned the librarianship of the Law Library to become associated with the Legislative and Bill Drafting Bureau now, with an endowment, attached to Columbia University; and on October 1 Mr. J. David Thompson resigned the charge of our Division of Documents to become Law Librarian at Columbia, to which institution we had already, indirectly, surrendered Dr. W. D. Johnston as University Librarian. Mr. Beaman's distinctive work with us was the direction and part editorship of the Index to the Statutes at Large; Mr Thompson's has been various, including not merely (of late years) the administration of the Division of Documents, but final revision in classification and subject heading, of the literature of the pure sciences; and for several years the laborious compilation and editorship of the Hand book of Learned Societies, the American Section of which was published by the Carnegie Institution, and the remainder of which remains on cards.
